

Nungurner Landcare Group

nungurnerlandcare@gmail.com

Growing outside the gate at 32 Jetty Road Nungurner. Clavaria amoena, sometimes called the Yellow Coral Fungus is a species of coral fungus in the family Clavariaceae. It appears to be distributed in temperate areas of the southern hemisphere. Indigenous to this area. If you have a photo of an interesting indigenous plant or animal please email it to Vicki on

fraser.victoria.e@edumail.vic.gov.au with some information and we will include it in our school newsletter and school website. Photo supplied by: Ross Monteith

